COURSES

THE 290 Theology of Consecrated Life 3 sem. hours

Fr. Michael Champagne, CJC, STD

Description: A Scriptural, historical, and theological study of the Church's understanding of consecrated life. The course will examine the roots of consecrated life in the life and mission of Jesus as well as the specific call to poverty, chastity, and obedience that He gave to some in the New Testament. The history of the development of consecrated life in the Church will be discussed and key magisterial documents will be studied. The nature of religious charisms and the essential nature of consecrated life will be treated as well as the process of vocational discernment. The varieties and various forms of consecrated life will be presented and discussed.

Day and Time: Tuesdays and Thursdays • 6:45 – 8:30 PM

Location: Marian Hall, Our Lady of Sorrows Retreat Center,
406 N Main St. St. Martinville

Classes start: Thursday May 30 • Classes end: Thursday, August 1
